

Donation Information – October 2013

Community Based Tourism Initiative (COBATI) is a non-profit tourism NGO established in 1998 to help rural Uganda communities in high tourism potential areas supplement their household incomes through community tourism enterprises. Your generous donation can help fund our valuable programs and services.

We are working to create an online donation form. Until then, you can send a donation by Moneygram bank transfer. Please contact us for instructions to send a donation.
